Twenty-five cents shall be paid for every license so issued by him to be paid by the party applying for the same, which shall go to the city order, as the city authorities may direct. 'etc. The term "recorder" in the act has referce, I apprehend, to some ministerial officer of the city government. In order to carry into effect this law, I suggest that a commit tee be appointed to examine at once the books of the county court clerk, that a settlement may be made with him at an early day and the books be placed in the hands of the trus-tee, who will, as the law directs, hereafter collect these taxes. The necessity that this now be done is apparent, for at this time the collection of the taxes referred to is prac-ically suspended. The April statement of the financial condition of the city shows a large amount of assets, apparently actual, but in a great measure really nominal. For ten or fifteen years hundreds of thousands of dollars have been carried on the books as assets which are he charge of assault orderly conduct. There are taxes on the meeting, placing upon a suspended list such taxes as are unavailable, and thus undeceive ourselves and our creditors from the appearance of having what we do not possess. Re-

J. R. FLIPPIN, Mayor. Alderman M'Cloy offered an objection, and asked if an authentic copy of the act above referred to had been received by the mayor. Mayor Flippin answered that a printed copy of the act had been received, and was in the hands of the county trustee.

On motion, the mayor's message was re ceived. On motion, the joint session dissolved, and the aldermen retired to their chamber.

As a lawyer he is the peer of any in the south, and to this he adds those scholarly attainments so eminently beliefly, fine $10. with that seat then let us press the name of Judge Brown, for none who know him can doubt his ample qualifications, or fail to expect that he will not only do honor to himself but reflect credit upon the section he would represent. Political predilections berries by the first of May. It is estimated that it will cost them between eight and ten thousand dollars to gather the strawberry gallery for two dollars per dozen as good as should have no weight in the selection of a judge, but it may not be amiss to state that Judge Brown was an old-Line Union Whig judge, but it may not be amiss to state that Judge Brown was an vild-Line Union Whig at the inception of the late war, but casting his destiny with the south he has ever since been a consistent liberal Democrat, always raising his voice against the oppression of his section, and doing noble battle in behalf of constitutional liberty. Therefore let Ten-

Froman, Nash Lurry, Joe Bynum, James Jones, Lewis Brown, and Calvin Anderson, were up on indictment for assault and battery. There are five other defendants, who are not on trial, but who are charged with the same offense. The above case is known as the Mary Burton rioters case, which originated last July, on DeSoto street. It will be remembered that the colored girl Mary Burton belonged to the upper ten society of the colored race. She was well educated and accomplished, taught so ool and gave lessons on the piano to the outhful aspirants for musical fame in col-red circles. She was a member of "de iety," and of the church, and was a toast with the young bloods who visited her and aspired to her hand, but Miss Burton held herself rather above the brethren, she being nearly white and having Spanish blood is her veins. The young bloods began to suspect that she favored a young white man, and one night in July they engaged in a con-spiracy to bulldoze Mary Burton and her reputed lover. They organized into a mob and surrounded the dwelling of the girl, broke open the door, and did in a most infamous d disgraceful manner, destroying property proved March 22, 1877, the collection of what is known as the merchants tax and the tax on privileges, was taken away from the suspected of being in the house.
